King's Group Academies officially chosen as partner for Ringmer Community College in East Sussex

The King's Group Multi Academy Trust has been officially appointed as the new Academy sponsor of Ringmer Community College. The agreement was formalised by the South East Regional Schools' Commissioner, Dominic Herrington.

KGA Chairman, Sir Roger Fry, who began his teaching career in South East England, expressed his delight at the prospect of Ringmer joining the KGA Multi Academy Trust.

"Our Academy Improvement Team has a wealth of experience as former or current English state school Ofsted 'Outstanding' Headteachers or Her Majesty's Inspectors (HMI). We have already received a warm welcome from parents and staff and now look forward to working closely with the students over the years to come as we strive to establish Ringmer as an outstanding academy", (Sir Roger Fry)

King's Group Multi Academy Trust will be official sponsor of Ringmer Community College from the 1st December, and the composition of the newly constituted Governing Body will reflect this partnership with King's Group Academies.

KGA CEO, Richard Schofield, has also expressed his enthusiasm in regards to this new project.

"We are looking forward to working in close partnership with Ringmer from the 1st December and feel very excited about the prospects for the school and the opportunities to connect with the King's Global network of learners", (Richard Schofield)

Interviews for the new Principal will take place on the 13th and 14th December, with a view for the successful applicant to take the post by Easter 2017 or September 2017 at the latest.
