Nexalia services offered a charity breakfast in support “El Sueño de Vicky” (Vicky’s Dream)

The catering company, part of the King’s Group organisation, provided a typical British “Afternoon Tea” themed breakfast to the attendees of the charity event.

On Thursday 8th June, Nexalia Services provided a charity breakfast for “El Sueño de Vicky”, a charity which aims to collect funds to finance research into children’s cancer. The event, which took place at the Fundación DAR of Madrid, brought together 30 people and raised 500 Euros.

Nexalia provided a typical English “Afternoon Tea” themed breakfast which included a selection of teas as well as traditional British scones. “Nexalia have given us their complete support and not only have we enjoyed a delicious breakfast but it was served to us by servers who are completely dedicated to supporting the cause” Laura García Marcos, the founder of the charity said.

“Nexalia is a company which is highly involved in charitable causes and because of this; we wanted to support “El Sueño de Vicky” with their charity breakfast on the 8th of June. We feel especially close to this organization, as we already provide catering services to schools and we work to provide healthy food and complete nutritional needs to young children. We would like to congratulate Sra. Marcos and the rest of the members of the charity for the great work that they have done”, declared Álvaro Lopez Presa, Manager of Nexalia Services.
